Introduction/Business Problem

Let's assume that there is someone who want to open a Gym or a Restaurant or a Club in a city.
Choosing a location is a must section to study and give a great portion of time to make a good decision, other wise the business will go to fail.
That's why my assignment will make a special map locations based on the desired business that the client want to make.